PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle.
Be our safeguard against the wickedness
And snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts,
By the divine power Cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits,
Who wander throughout the world
Seeking the ruin of souls.

There will also be Eucharistic Adoration during this time. ### SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Catholics are reminded that during this extraordinary time, they are dispensed from their obligation to attend Sunday Mass. People are encouraged to make an Act of Spiritual Communion with the following prayer:

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present in the most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually
into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

LENTEN PRAYER FOR SUNDAYS

Heavenly Father, As I enter another week of my Lenten journey, guide me to the path that leads to you. Fill my heart with gratitude, patience, strength, and peace as I strive to become the-best-version-of-myself, honestly admitting my shortcomings and sins.

As I renew my resolve each day to become a better person, let me hear your voice in the deepest reaches of my heart. Give me rest in you. Help me to accept others, showing them your great love instead of casting judgment. Stay with me through the busy days this week and remind me that when I need comfort, solitude, wisdom, or guidance, I can always turn to you. Help me develop discipline and generosity through fasting and almsgiving, and come closer to you through prayer this Lent. In your name I pray, Amen.

THE HEALING OF A BLIND MAN

Dear friends, as the churches are locked down in fear of spreading of Covid19 I would like to share with you the message from the readings for the fourth Sunday of Lent. The central theme of today's readings is that God makes everything new in and through Jesus Christ. We are children of the light baptized into the glory that is Christ. We are initiated into the life of Christ who is the light of the world. Once we are baptized in Christ we become his new creation, the members of God's own family. Today as we enter the fourth Sunday of Lent we are called upon to renew ourselves and experience the loving invitation of our Lord. In the early church those to be baptized and public sinners were called upon to understand that Jesus alone is the new life. In the first reading we have Prophet Samuel going in search of the new king in place of Saul who was not faithful to the Lord. When he finds David son of Jesse, God tells the prophet to anoint him because God himself has chosen him to rule over his people. Samuel anoints a new king for God's people. In the Gospel of today presents us Jesus as the light of the world. We have today the marvelous story about the cure of a man born blind. Jesus tells them that he must perform the works of him who sent him while it is day. Night is coming when no one can work. Once the blind man is cured, he is able to see Jesus as his Lord, something the religious leaders were unable to do. In the second reading Paul reminds the Ephesians that faith and Baptism rescued them from the darkness of sin and introduced them into the light of Christ. Paul invites all Christians to live as the children of light and judge everything by the light of Christ. As we are experiencing a sense of darkness due to Novel Covid19 Virus, let us surrender to God and seek His light. Christ who promised us that He is the light of the World, may shine His light upon us in these trying times.

All Masses are cancelled until April 18, 2020
Dear parishioners of St Patrick's, even though all the Masses are cancelled for public in fear of spread of Covid19 Virus, I still offer, celebrate Mass privately every day for our parishioners and for general intentions. The church authorities have taken this move to contain the novel Covid19 respecting the advice of Health care authorities. I assure you all that even though the church is not having Masses, the doors are open for private prayers during the day. On Saturday March 28, as announced earlier. There will be confessions from 10am to 2pm. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for adoration. During this challenging time of health concerns let us come and adore the Lord in the Holy Eucharist.
Fr Jerome Mascarenhas
Pastor

Dear God,
We ask in Your name to heal those who are sick from Coronavirus.
To protect and cover our families from getting infected by this devastating illness.
To give wisdom and guidance to our healthcare workers and leaders.
Bring comfort, peace and strength for those who are ill or who have lost a loved ones because of it.
Amen.
